Guidelines for Submission of Students' grievances

The Institution has a mechanism to redress student grievances of both sexual harassment and ragging cases. Any issue pertaining to sexual harassment and ragging cases are taken up by Womens' Grievances Redressal & Empowerment Cell, Anti Ragging Committee and Discipline Committee. The responsibility of these committees is to resolve the complaints, feedback and other grievances of the students' community. The IQAC put up a notice on the college notice board informing students about prohibition of Sexual harassment and Ragging. At the beginning of every semester, newly admitted students are provided awareness about sexual harassment and ragging.

A complain box is installed in the college campus. Students can also submit their issues online at <https://lgc.ac.in/page/grievance-redressal-system>. The case will be forwarded to the appropriate committee for further action.
